Advertise With Your Display Windows

Some people do not believe in newspaper advertising, the same as some who do not believe in taking a bath, but we cannot see why a businessman who has an opportunity to advertise his merchandise without cost or expense, will not dress and clean his display windows up, and put in a decent display of his goods.

Our merchants have been pretty liberal in their advertising for the Monday Bargain days, and most of them have aided wonderfully by displaying the signs the Times have donated to them, and putting in a fine display of goods. Thousands of dollars are paid by successful merchants for their window advertising, and consider it only second to the thousands they spend with the newspapers. Most of our stores have good windows, most of them are kept clean and attractive and this article is intended only for those who seem to forget that they owe a duty to the street and themselves. Clean up, brighten up, and decorate up your display windows this week and make a good display to show the people we are all in earnest in in our Monday Bargain day.

Bargain Monday a Success

The merchants of 63rd st. who took advantage of the advertised Bargain Day last Monday, and displayed the bargain signs in their display windows, met with success, and all report the best Monday sales they have had this season. However, it was but a starter, and while more was achieved than expected for a first day, the real results may be expected to increase each week. Readers have told us of availing themselves of some of the bargains, and complained that some advertised were not bargains, but there are so many on the page published in the Times, that many of them cannot help but be bargains. Next Monday additional sales will be held, new lines of goods offered, and reductions made on every class. This affords an excellent opportunity for our people to meet our live merchants, and learn that they are out after your trade if honest goods, reasonable prices and service can get it. Watch the newspaper, and the windows for next Monday's sale and avail yourself of the opportunity.

Get "Englewood" Plate for Your Auto

Acting upon the suggestion made by the Englewood Times some months ago, the Englewood Business Men's association has secured a large number of artistic plate signs, small but attractive, white letters on a green background (in appreciation of the man who started the movement), to be used on all automobiles from Englewood. The "Chicago" signs are all right, but we need all of the local advertising we can get, and this is a splendid means to that end. We also suggest that in registering at hotels or otherwise Englewood be used instead of Chicago.

The Englewood plates are being put out practically at cost and will retail at 25 cents. They may be purchased Thursday or Friday at the following stores and other shops in the district may have them for sale at a later day: Becker-Ryan & Co., 63rd and Halsted sts.; The Auto Shop, 716 W. 63rd st.; Whitehead Brothers, Marquette rd. and Halsted; L. E. Lilly, 7023 S. Halsted st.; Englewood Overland Co., 5950 S. Halsted st.; Bergstrom Auto Sales, 820 W. 59th st., and Stratford Motor Sales, 708 W. 63rd st.

Jonathan Bliss, Jr., 6503 Harvard ave., has been confined to his home with tonsilitis.

Mrs. J. Butler, 224 64th st., has returned home after an extended visit in St. Louis.

The luncheons given by the ladies of Pilgrim church have been a great success, and well attended.

Miss Lois Hartley, 6639 Perry ave., returned to Oxford, Ohio, to resume her studies after her spring vacation with her parents.

Mrs. Fred Baker of 6415 Harvard ave. gave a surprise party to her husband Friday evening last in honor of his birthday anniversary.

Miss Margaret D. Fender of the Tudor and Miss Anna Watt of Beverly Hills are seeing the sights in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. John J. Reynolds, formerly of Englewood, now of Crystal Lake, was visiting friends in Englewood last week.

Miss Grace Miller, 6710 Indiana ave., entertained the officers of Banner Blue lodge Monday, April 9. They all had an enjoyable time.

Mr. N. T. Curth of 360 E. Garfield blvd., will leave Saturday morning for Orchard Lake, Mich., to visit relatives and will return about July 1.

Mrs. Zelma Karmsen and Mrs. Fanny Bock, who has spent the winter at Port Orange and Wilbur by the Sea, Florida, spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Karmsen, 6345 Yale ave., enroute to their home in Greenville, Mich.

What They Do to You When You're Sick

In the old days mother used to put a piece of ham rind or bacon on a red flannel rag around your throat, then grease your chest with goose grease, fill you up with a quart of cam-mo-mile tea and trust in Providence, but now the doctor gives you the once over, smiles in sardonic glee and gets out his squirt gun. First he shoots into the fat of your backbone 250 millions pneumo-serobacterin, and the next day he leads a charge of 500 million more of the pneumococcus, who join the first A. E. F.'s and the third day, without intrenchment or camouflage he visits you with another shot of 1000 millions of the bacterial cusses and for fear they are growing lonesome the fourth day he brings up the heavy artillery, big berthas and dismounted marine guns and shoots you with 2000 million more of the cocuccuses. By this time you know how France and Belgium felt during the heat of their worst campaigns, and you qualify as a battle ground for all the millions of little beggars your carcass will hold. By this time you have only the interest of an innocent bystander and let the fight go on. You begin to feel sorry for all the good deeds you ever performed, and repent of having voted the Democratic ticket, but in a few days the campaign is over and an armistice proclaimed and you are well.

Clean the Subway Walls of Ragged Political Bills

The election is over and one of the first duties should be to clean the subway walls of the ragged dirty remains of the political bills that were sneaked on them during the campaign. As soon as these walls are cleaned they should have signs stenciled upon them forbidding the posting of bills and then the city ordinance against such disfiguring strictly enforced.

To Avoid Confusion in Reaching Englewood Times

As there are three other papers published from the same office as the Englewood Times, there has been some confusion as to which paper the sender desired their article or advertisement to appear in. Our telephones are the same, Englewood 1400, and those desiring to reach us should specifically state the Englewood Times. The Economist, Auburn Park Booster and Merchants Telegram are published by Foster & McDonell, and are all free distribution papers, and in no way connected with the Englewood Times, hence, matter intended for our paper should be sent to the Englewood Times.

4 NEW RECORDS FROM "WILLIAM TELL"

ALDA, FRANCES

66134 William Tell—Selva opaco (Act II) (Deep Shaded Forest) In Italian—Rossini—10-in., list price, $1.25.

Mme. Alda's number is Matilda's Romance from Act II, in which the girl confesses to the silent hills her love for Arnold. It may be described as a lyric-coloratura number, for despite its brilliancies, the lyric spirit prevails. It is a gently flowing, somewhat pastoral melody, sung in flexible, clear, flute-like soprano, with unexpected chromatic turns, bright bits of embellishment and descents over wide vocal intervals. At the close is a deftly-run cadenza.

DE LUCA, MARDONES, MARTINELLI

95213 William Tell—Troncar suoi di (Act II) (His Life Basely Taken) In Italian—Rossini—12-in., list price, $2.50.

This is the great trio. The tenor, Martinelli, the Arnold of the opera.

MARTINELLI, GIOVANNI

74800 William Tell—O muto asil del pianto (Act IV) (Oh, Blessed Abode) In Italian—Rossini—12-in., list price, $1.75.

Arnold has come to bid farewell to his home before returning to the cause of liberty. Not knowing Tell has been captured, he for the time yields to his own sorrows; for the little house was the home of his father. The number is an impassioned lyric, pitched very high in the tenor range. In the closing cadenza, a C flat is heard, clear, powerful and ringing.

DE LUCA, GIUSEPPE

66133 William Tell—Resta immobile (Act III) (Flinch Not, Nor Stir a Limb) In Italian—Rossini—10-in., list price, $1.25.

De Luca's is that of the scene where Tell is commanded by Gessler to shoot the apple from the head of his son. He already has concealed a second arrow for Gessler in the event of failure. In the first recitative he calls the boy to him, and then, after a string introductory passage, he adjures him to remain firm. As the number proceeds—you can feel it—his own eye and brain and hand grow steady as rock. Tell is a manly hero, and De Luca sings the great scene in heroic style. There is a fine prolonged high note at the close.

HALSTED AND WEST

All West of Halsted St. 55th to 75th Sts.

NEWS

An order has been issued for the paving with asphaltum of 68th and 66th sts., from Halsted west.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard and Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Bierer, now living at 755 72nd st., have moved to 6358 Sangamon st.

We are pleased at all times to receive news items of a local nature and will accept them up to Wednesday noon of each week.

Some of the truck drivers are reported as ignoring the electric "Go" and "Stop" signals at Marquette rd. and Halsted sts.

Alderman Ryan is to establish an office in a central location where he will be pleased to meet his constituents and transact all ward business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Londelius, of 6335 Peoria, will leave Englewood this fall for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will make their home in the future.

Thomas Cunningham, who died at his home, 6548 Halsted st., was buried Wednesday morning from St. Bernard's church, interment being at Mt. Olivet.

A number of friends gave a birthday surprise on Fred G. Rice at 7251 Peoria st., last Saturday evening, and presented him with a lovely gold pen and eversharp pencil, also linen handkerchiefs. A very delightful evening was enjoyed by all.

Jane M. Waters died at her home, 6103 Sangamon st., Tuesday, and was buried Thursday afternoon at Oak Woods cemetery. She was the wife of the late Robert Waters, and the mother of George, Thomas and the late Mrs. J. Nelson and Cameron Waters.

There will be considerable moving May 1, and there would be much more if people could find places to move. There will be a number of changes of business houses; many of the new rooms will have new tenants as well as old tenants improving their locations.

Wilson's beautiful new candy palace, the finest in the city, will be opened the 28th at 6430-32 Halsted st.

There must be a stop put to speeding in this section of the town, as most drivers appear to think it is a race course and it is dangerous to cross any of the streets.

Ogden Park Library Has Many New Books

Men! Women! Children! People of West Englewood! Do you know that there is a free public library in your neighborhood? Where it is located? What it contains? How it may be used? What it will do for you? The Ogden Park library is a branch of the Chicago Public library. It contains 9200 volumes and is located in the field house in Ogden Park at 65th st. and Racine ave.

Whatever your needs, the library will supply them. It has tales of mystery, romance and of the sea; books of travel, history, business and of famous men and women; books of house decoration and books of gardening; books for grown-ups and for children. To become a borrower and to use the library at home, get an application and the only requirement is to secure as a guarantor a person whose name is in the city or telephone directory. It's up to you to be alert, progressive, up to date. You can be by reading good books and magazines.

Books of varied subjects are among the new ones at Ogden Park. Among the new fiction are: Atherton, Black Oxen; Bailey, Dim Lantern; Benson, Miss Mapp; Brand, Alcatraz; Hendryx, North; MacFarlane, Man's Country; Mackenzie, Seven Ages of Woman; Marshall, Isle of Retribution; O'Brien, Trodden Gold;—the belief that money and social position bring happiness and the conviction that it comes through constructive work and unselfish living are contrasted in this story of the lives of two sisters and their families. Oppenheim, Seven Conundrums; Ostlander, McCarty Incog; Richmond, Foursquare; Rohlfs, Step on the Stair; Scott, Mother Machree;—It concerns a young choir boy with a wonderful gift of song. A sad little story, entirely musical atmosphere. Sinclair, Voise at Johnnywater; Smith, Deadlines; being twelve sketches of newspaper life by one who knows through and through its thrill, its boredom, its humor, the type of man it attracts and the type of man it breaks. Springer, Blood Ship; Terhune, Lochinvar Luck; Tracy, The Pelham Affair; Fletcher, The Caring Cross Mystery; Arnim, The Enchanted April; Dutton, The Shadow on the Glass; Gibbs, Middle of the Road; Gale, Faint Perfume; and Evarts, Tumbleweeds.

Among the new non-fiction titles added to the Ogden Park branch library, is one by Mrs. (Forbes-Robertson) Hale, "What's Wrong with Our Girls." This book contends that the thoughts and actions of the modern girl are the result of environment and training, and that the constructive part she may play as woman in the progress of the world depends upon the parents, schools and society of today. Not only goes down to basic principles in her analysis but makes practical suggestions for bettering conditions. This is a timely subject in which everyone is interested and this little book is well worth while reading. "Windows," by Galsworthy; "Self-Mastery," by Coue; "Home Vegetable Gardens," by Freeman; and "Disenchantment," by Captain Montague. This is a "study of the philosophy of all war as typified in the last one . . . . Throughout runs the theme of disillusion—the youthful enthusiasm with which in 1914 England took up what seemed a noble cause and the cynicism which succeeded this happier feeling." The Boston Transcript says, "Here is a golden book; the kind of document about the war for which we have long been waiting, written by a fine cultured gentleman with a faith in the decency of the ordinary human being." In Captain Montague's book, we begin by sharing the high hopes which drove the earliest volunteers into the army: we look on, while Captain Montague is adding incident to telltale incident, at the slow growth of disenchantment in the hearts of British privates and N. C. O.'s. We see those hopes that were so high in the act of dwindling from less and less to almost nothing. "Disenchantment is an indomitable book. Its beauty and energy make this spirit contagious.

South Park Paper Flower Show

The South Park Paper Flower show opened at Ogden Park on Sunday, April 15, and will continue through Sunday, April 22. The people of this neighborhood should not fail to see this unusual display. It should be of especial interest to school groups. There are fifteen parks represented, each with its own exhibit.

Gymnasium Exhibition

The exhibition of the women's gymnasium will be held in Ogden Park Friday evening, April 27. The program includes games, drills and dances prepared by the various classes.

Children's Operetta

Mr. William Lester's Operetta, "The Frog Prince," will be given by the Civic Music Children's chorus of Ogden Park the latter part of the month. On Monday afternoon, April 30, there will be a special performance for children. An evening performance will be given Tuesday evening, May 1.

Boast Exhibit

The men and boys of the Ogden Park Model Yacht club are having a special exhibit of their boats during the flower show in the lobby of the field house.

Community Program

The community program Tuesday evening, April 10 was given by the Columbia College of Expression. There were excellent dramatic readings, dances and a presentation of J. M. Barrie's play, "Pantaloon."

Forty-eight Paid Fines Monday

These were auto drivers who attempted to get by without city or state licenses and in addition to paying for their licenses, they were called upon to pay fines from $10 to $25, and next month it will run up to $50, so the officers say. If you want to drive a car you must see that it has a license tag, as the people object to being bowled over by a vampire that carries neither sense or license.

To Celebrate Golden Jubilee

The Metropolitan Business college will hold its semi-centennial grand ball on Friday evening, April 20th, in the Gold Room of the LaSalle hotel. This marks the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the college. A large crowd is expected to attend.

The Metropolitan Business college was founded in March of 1873, and grew even during the trying times of that period, until today it is one of the largest institutions of its kind in the country. There are fifteen colleges in the system, the total average enrollment of which is over 2,500 students. Only commercial subjects are taught.

This Week at the Empress

"The Pennant Winners" Is Attendance Record Breaker

Produced and arranged under the personal direction of J. W. Whitehead, manager of the Empress theater, "The Pennant Winners," showing this week at that theater, is a performance that pays no small tribute to the ability of local theatrical managers.

Mr. Whitehead has brought together an aggregation of musical and comedian talent that is seldom billed in one burlesque performance. The voices of Miss Florence Tanner, as "Miss Innocence," and Miss Ollie Christian, who plays the part of "Another Cabaret Favorite" are especially attractive. Bob Girard, "Antoni Garibaldi," does particularly fine character work and George A. Slocum the comedian, is good.

The two scenes, one laid in a street in China and the second in the Hawaiian Islands, are very beautiful from the standpoint of scenic and lighting effects.

"The Pennant Winners" is the first of a series under the direction of Mr. Whitehead, which he promises will progress in quality, even with this week's show as a starting point, as they progress in time.

Next Week at the Empress

The Empress Theater Burlesque Comedy company will offer next week, "Moonshine, Woman and Song," and Mr. Whitehead states that this show will be bigger and better even than his "Pennant Winners" show which broke all attendance records. Mr. Whitehead advises that all secure a seat reservation for the balance of the season as he assures us that week by week in every way his shows will be bigger and better, though it might seem impossible to improve on his "Pennant Winners."

All the present favorites will be included in "Moonshine Woman and Song," but several new faces will be added and a still larger orchestra will dispense the melody and jazz.

The beautiful "rainbow runway" will also be retained.

All special music is being arranged and the costumes are already on their way from Los Angeles, where they are designed by the same costumers who create for all our most noted screen idols.

A number of novelties will be offered during the action and photos of the company's principal women including Miss Tanner, Miss Christian, Miss Baker and Miss Finnell will be given as souvenirs to the patrons.

We will accept classified ads by telephone hereafter from subscribers or persons known to us, and they may remit later. Call Englewood 1400, Englewood Times, up to 5 p. m. Wednesday evenings.

Big Program at Harvard Theater

On Friday and Saturday, April 20th and 21st, Charley Chaplin in the "Pilgrim." Imagine Chaplin in this! As an escaped convict he steals a parson's clothes and falls out of the train in a Texas town where a new parson is expected. He preaches a splendid sermon about David and Goliath, but it doesn't work out in real life. A seven-foot sheriff has a seven-shooter instead of a sword, and five-foot Chaplin needs a lot more than David's sling to tie up his splints. Four reels, too! Call it "The Kid's" only rival and you're still well within the limit, because it has that human, pathetic undercurrent that makes a Chaplin masterpiece.

Also with the "Pilgrim" program, Constance Binney in "A Bill of Divorcement." On Friday, matinee and night, April 20th. "A Bill of Divorcement" was a tremendous stage success in England and the United States, and it is said to be the first modern play to be done in Japan. In book form it has sold by the thousands, and it has been or is being translated into Polish, Dutch, Spanish, German, Italian, French and Czecho-Slovakian with a view to presentation on the stage. It is now being presented on the screen by Associated Exhibitors, with Constance Binney starred.

Also with the "Pilgrim" program on Saturday, April 21st, Viola Dana in "Crinoline and Romance." The old-fashioned girl, having left her stern grandfather's home, decides to discard her quaint crinolines and adopt the clothes of the fashionable girls around her. To prove she can be as modern as the rest, she smokes her first cigarette gamely, even though it chokes her; she insists that her partner teach her the latest dance steps; and she behaves as gaily as the others. While the frivolity is at its highest, grandfather makes his appearance, and is shocked beyond words in "Crinoline and Romance."

Sunday and Monday, April 22nd and 23rd. Continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m. The speed queen of all racing romances, Agnes Ayers, with Theodore Roberts and Richard Dix, in a new hurricane of thrills and a cyclone of laughs, "Racing Hearts," faster! faster! That's the tingling cry when youth's at the wheel, when a girl's love and a man's honor depend on taking whirlwind chances. You'll be gripped by the breathless thrill of it; you'll laugh as you zip along. Also round 3 of Witwer's greatest story, "Fighting Blood." From Collier's Weekly. 2 reels of clean humor, excitement and thrills. International News, 2-part comedy and Sunday matinee only, "Plunder."

Tuesday and Wednesday, April 24th and 25th, Walter Hiers in "Mr. Billings Spends His Dime." You are sure to enjoy this one in which Mr. Hiers puts forth his best efforts.

Thursday and Friday, April 27th and 28th. De Mille pictures always offer a gold mine of exploitation ideas, and "Adam's Rib" is no exception to the rule. Here are some of the rich ingredients in the picture: A new version of the eternal triangle in which a flapper daughter sacrifices her own happiness to prevent her mother from running away with another man; a unique lover for the flapper in the shape of a sky professor of archaeology, interested more in dinosaurs than women; gorgeous society dance scenes; typical De Mille gowns and settings; a panic on the Chicago Board of Trade; a revolution sweeping a monarch from his throne; a startling scene in a forest 5,000 years ago in which cavemen chase pretty daughters of Eve around.

Sherman Park Branch Library Magazines

Magazines. What do they mean to the average man and woman? The most effective way of keeping up with modern thought, scientific, political and literary. The Sherman Park branch of the Chicago Public library regularly subscribes to between 60 and 70 popular magazines. This means that we have magazines catering to every taste and following every bend of interest.

For the man particularly interested in radio and who is not just now, we have Radio News, Science and Invention, Popular Science and Scientific American, all with scientific explanations of the latest scientific developments and practical applications of these finds.

For items of political interest and information we turn to the monthly Current Opinion, Illustrated World, World's Work and Survey and the Weekly Independent, Literary Digest, New Republic and Outlook. These are the outstanding political organs of present political thought, containing articles by men of sound judgment, men who are keenly alive to political possibilities of the day.

A great many people are interested in magazines of the outdoor world and that seems particularly true at this time of the year, so we are glad to inform the reading public that we also have magazines filling this urge. Field and Stream, Sunset, Travel and Motor are the outstanding ones of this group.

Of course these magazines interest women, too, but they have several groups which are particularly their own, under which these old standards come, Good Housekeeping, Modern Priscilla, American Cookery, Delineator, Ladies Home Journal, Pictorial Review, Vogue and Woman's Home Companion. These need no description. With this group we also want to add, however, House Beautiful, the magazine of house furnishings, house planning and home decoration.

For just good story magazines, Century, Harper, Scribner, Smart Set, American, Everybody's and Saturday Evening Post make a more than fair collection.

For the parent and teacher we have special magazines devoted to child study, education and development. Elementary School Journal, School Art's, Child Life, Little Folk's, Youth's Companion, National Geographic and Mentor are magazines that mean a great deal to those interested in child study and education.

There are many other magazines but space only permits the mention of the above. All these magazines may be taken out on a regular library card and for those who haven't a library card we would suggest their coming to the library and see how very simple it is to get one. There is no red tape connected with it, but just the simple signing of an application and guarantee. The child of the house could bring the application home, then the applicant could bring it in signed and see what we have to offer.

The library is open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. on every week day, except legal holidays.

Surprise Birthday Party

Tuesday, April 17th, the Englewood Birthday club gave a surprise party in honor of Mrs. Chas. Hayne of 6501 Yale ave., it being her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Hayne was not home when her guests called, but returned from a near-by store to find twenty of her friends were making themselves at home. It was some time before she could get over her surprise. A delicious luncheon was served and the ladies presented Mrs. Hayne with a handsome gift, wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Bill McElheney Missing

It is more than two weeks since Bill McElheney drew his salary as janitor from Foster & McDonnell's and started for his home at 6020 Wallace st. He did not appear at home and the earnest search of his wife and friends have failed to reveal his whereabouts. He is a large sized man, rather stooped shoulders, red face, small mole on his right eye lid, about forty years of age, dresses in working clothes. Luck and Lack

Messages to Seekers of Success

Don't trust to luck. Luck is untrustworthy. Systematic, scientific striving for any goal is far more likely to bring you success than any mere faith in your success.

Just as changing a single letter changes "Luck" to "Lack," so will the reverses of a single day change plenty to want. But you can insure yourself against this by building your success on the habit of saving.

Save and Win

Be well dressed. Make friends. Increase your influence in your community. Enjoy the respect of all your associates.

These things do not come to those who trust to luck for them. Systematic saving will win them for you. Systematic saving will accumulate for you a small fortune that can safely and readily be expanded to a large one.

Gardening Books at the Hamilton Park Branch Library

The late spring has retarded the planting of home gardens, but there is still time to plan them intelligently with the aid of the books on gardening in the Hamilton Park Branch of the Chicago Public library, at 72nd and Normal blvd. The library is open every day except Sunday, from nine in the morning until nine in the evening, and five books may be drawn at one time by any adult person. Bailey, "Principles of Vegetable Gardening"; Bolte, "Back Yard Farmer"; Croy, "1,000 Hints on Vegetable Gardening"; Davis, "Garden Book"; Freeman, "Home Vegetable Garden"; French, "How to Grow Vegetables"; Fullerton, "How to Make a Vegetable Garden"; Ivins, "Garden Crops"; Kruhm, "Home Vegetable Garden"; Morrison, "How to Make the Garden Pay"; Rexford, "Home Garden"; Rockwell, "Home Vegetable Garden"; Watts, "Vegetable Garden."

The major part of the program will be rendered by Miss Charlotte Allen, the accomplished organist of the church, on the magnificent pipe organ of that church. The program will be varied and appropriate. Miss Allen will be assisted in the program by Mrs. Newell Mainwaring Finn, who has frequently delighted Englewood audiences with her fine soprano voice, and by Mr. George F. Gordon, favorably known as a baritone soloist, and leader of the Normal Park Baptist choir. A brief service of worship will precede the musical program. An earnest appeal is made to all those caring to contribute to same.

The Sixty Club

The fortnightly mixed bridge party took on the appearance of a "homecoming," many of the members who were "summering" in the warm climates having returned.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sommers, Jim with a complexion like a section boss; Dr. and Mrs. Guy M. Cushing, Guy looking as though he had been in the sunshine all day, and aided by the moonshine at night, or rather one should say "moonlight." Mr. and Mrs. Hardy found both enjoyment and renewed health in New Mexico; Mrs. Austin and Mrs. McKee from California and Florida. Mrs. Frank McClure has recovered from her long illness, so you would never suspect it. The hostesses were Mrs. McClure, Mrs. Saunders and Mrs. Yule. Almost a capacity attendance was present. The next mixed party will be held Thursday, April 26th, the hostesses being Mrs. Shutter, Mrs. Ramsey, and Mrs. McKee.

The attendance at the Tuesday evening "Ladies Night" parties is almost as great as at the Thursday parties, reminding one of the ancient joke that "if the ladies were banished to China the men would go to Pekin."

Keen interest and much friendly rivalry is existing in the handicap billiard tournament, the handicappers having done their work so well that it is difficult to predict the winner.

4 Months' Trial Subscription One Dollar Per Year 25c

Give a Dollar to the Boy Scouts

We have just received the following letter from the mother of one of our scouts:

"I very much appreciate the Boy Scout organization. I read in the paper about the "drive" and I am sending A—— with $1.00 as my contribution."

Those who know what scouting means to the boys, to the parents, and the community, are willing to sacrifice, if need be, to support scouting. This mother, at a sacrifice, sent in her contribution. Her dollar meant more to her than $100 to many of the business men of this district.

We have been unable to secure enough workers to solicit contributions and for that reason the quota needed for the 1923 scouting program is only a little over half subscribed. Will you not do as this mother did, and send your check, cash or pledge to 304 63rd st.? One dollar will be appreciated, but if you are able to give $5 or $10 we hope you will do so.

Kindly do what you can for the good of the scouts. They are busy doing their daily "good turn," and will we are sure appreciate and deserve your support throughout the year.

Yours truly,
WALTER W. MORRIS,
WM. G. TEGTMEIER,
Chairmen, Campaign Committee.

Sharp; secretary, Mrs. George Hough; treasurer, Mrs. F. A. Nichols. Director in charge, Mrs. W. S. Heffernan. Mrs. T. F. Avery was hostess of the day.

Is Marriage Journey's End to Modern Couples?

Some Feminists Disagree With Famous Beauty in Discussion

Gloria Foy, a recent addition to Broadway's glittering constellation, has unloosed a violent debate upon the Rialto by asserting that marriage should be 'journey's end' to modern couples as it was to their grandparents.

The Lucy Stone Leaguers, feminists, professional and even home women have all taken issue with the pretty star of "Up She Goes"

MARRIAGE NOT ARCHER

"Their unanimous opinion seems to be, complains Gloria, 'that marriage is not journey's end, but a step in life of little more importance than the purchase of a new frock or the obtaining of a new job. If you do not like the frock, you can return it. If the job doesn't suit, you can give it up. That's exactly what they do with husbands.

JOURNEY'S END

'Now I was trained in another school and I agree with the song, 'Journey's End', that started the whole argument. I believe you should first be sure you have the right man, then if he stands the test that all girls who have been trained by good mothers know how to apply, marry him, build a home and stick until death do you part. In other words, call the marriage ceremony, 'Journey's End'!"

This evening the Holy Nativity church's choir boys will be given a benefit performance in Valentine's hall, 103rd and Charles st. It promises to be a real up to date minstrel show and it is hoped a nice sum will be realized so the lads will have enough for their summer camp.

The homestead owned by the late Col. Clarke, founder of Pacific Garden mission, is being wrecked and in its place an apartment building will be built. The residence stood at 112th and Hoyne ave. No doubt the dear colonel and his wife would be delighted to know that the ground loved by them as a home and resting place after a hard way's toil, will surely make some one happy, "the motto they constantly quoted."

Daughters of Veterans Activities

Martha Ammen Tent No. 20, Daughters of Veterans, have had many social affairs for the good of the order the past two months. Our birthday party for the first three months of the year, given by seven members, was a grand success and enjoyed by all present, and a nice little sum was realized for our floral fund.

The department aides of Tent No. 20 have been doing good work, giving card and bunco parties at the homes of the members to raise money for the "chief of staff," Mrs. Lillian Woodward, which she will turn over to the department president, Miss Lotta M Cowrey, at our department convention which will be held at Peoria, Ill, the week of June 18th.

At our last meeting in March we were pleased to have with us Mrs. Ola F. Dee, past department president and a charter member of Tent No. 20, who is leaving to make her home in California. She left us a "remembrance" to be used for the good of the Tent. Several candidates were received, and refreshments served. One of our members, Mrs. Grace Allman, who now lives in Holland, N. Y, was with us. Come again, sister.

Normal Park Men's Fellowship Club

The April meeting of the Normal Park Men's Open Forum Fellowship club was held at Normal Park M. E. church Wednesday, April 11th. It was a very interesting event and nearly 100 men attended. Ray P. DeCamp, the vice president, presided in the absence of President E. E. Stamp. A dinner was served at 6:45 and then a program consisting of an address on the South Park system was given by Chief Engineer Lynn White. He informed the audience of many improvements soon to be undertaken, which already have been told about in former issues of the Times. George A. Brennan, the veteran principal of the Van Vlissengen school, gave a splendid talk on educational matters and particularly of the beauties of "The Dunes" of which he has made a study for many years, and has also made many photographs, that are valuable and instructive.

The next meeting of the club, due notice of which will be given in the Times, will be "Ladies Night" and will be addressed by S. J. Duncan-Clark, the former editor of the Chicago Post and a literateur of merit. The meetings will be held in the same place. Mr. E. N. Cruse, chairman of the publicity committee, will prepare the announcements for the next meeting.

ANNOUNCEMENT of Interest to
MILLIONS of FAMILIES

"I will build a car for the multitude"
Said Henry Ford in 1903—Read how the fulfillment of that prophecy is now made possible through the

Ford Weekly Purchase Plan

For many years it has been Henry Ford's personal ambition to make the Ford the universal family car—to put it within the reach of the millions of people who have never been privileged to enjoy the benefits of motor car ownership.

During the past fifteen years over 7,500,000 Ford cars have been placed in the hands of retail customers—more than a million and a half of them within the past twelve months—and yet there are still millions of families who are hopefully looking forward to the day when they can own a Ford.

And now the way is open.

Under the terms of this plan you can select your Ford Car, set aside a small amount each week and you will be surprised how soon you will own it. In the meantime your money will be safely deposited to your credit in one of the local banks where it will draw interest.

Think it over. Five dollars will start an account. The whole family can participate in it—father, mother, brothers and sisters each doing a little.

Why not start today? Stop in and talk it over with your local Ford dealer. He will be glad to fully explain the details of the plan and help you to get started toward the ownership of a Ford car.

Song Sentiment Comforts Lonely and Homely

Actress Aids Cupid By Applying Balm Nightly

New York City. "The most benevolent act of my life," declares Allyn King, former Ziegfeld Follies beauty, now starring in "Sun Showers", the Lew Cantor-Harry Delf production, "is singing nightly 'Everyone Is Beautiful In Someone's Eyes'.

"Every performance I watch my little ray of song comfort spread from the footlights until my audience has been engulfed by its warmth.

HITS ALL

"It hits the nice old sports in the front row first and immediately they brighten and begin to preen themselves, smoothing down hair where hair there is none.

"After them it hits the young couples who look at each other meaningly and blush. They're just about the nicest of all and I only hope they'll remember the song after they get married.

"The old maids take to it, too, perhaps as a sort of tonic for their self esteem, for doesn't it say everyone is beautiful in someone's eyes?

"Then come the elderly couples—the shes who have just begun to lose hold on Friend Husband and the hes who have slumped into embonpoint and baldness. It brings memories to them and, I hope, good resolutions.

"Last but not least, the song cheers me. It is pretty nice to think that there's somebody, somewhere, thinking you're beautiful, no matter what your mirror tells you!"

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

WIND MAGIC

The wistful winds of springtime
Leave languor in their wake;
Light as a sigh their dreams drift by,
And idle hearts must break
To see how cool and fragrant
Arbutus flood tides make.

The azure winds of summer
Have strange, enchanted ways,
With scented hands, weave silken strands.
The tapestry of days
That, deep in green gold magic,
The idle hearts amaze.

But, oh, the winds of autumn,
With piracy and strife,
Race up to loot of gold and fruit
The trees with treasure rife;
And stir, with tomboy laughter,
The idle hearts to life.

Courtesy week—Thank you!

Good morning Mayor Dever, and how are you today?

What the sunshine is to the flower, "thank you" is to the human heart, without it life would be colorless.

This is "Courtesy Week" of the Kiwanians and Bill Tegtmeier almost thanked Doctor Norton for a chew of tobacco.

Homer Clemmons tells me of a Blue Island man who called up a Taxi cab company to send him a taxidermist.

A High school boy when asked about Good Friday said "he was the fellow that did the housework for Robinson Crusoe."

Mayor Dever began his career working in a tannery, so did General Grant. Under any other name they would smell as sweet.

A woman on a Kansas jury in a murder trial would not vote for conviction "as there would be no one to care for the prisoner's pet dog if he was hung."

Didja ever notice that there are no newspaper men mentioned in the millionaires who are being vamped for their money? Wisdom and poverty are their protection.

I read yesterday of four Standard Oil men being held up that were carrying pay rolls for the company. Strange I hear no weeping for sympathy for the losers.

Jackie Coogan has struck his second oil well that is a good paying "gusher." This may help him eke out a living with his measly little $500.000 a year salary.

The High school girl was particular as to her grammar and when the boy asked "Can I kiss you?" she told him that it was wrong. "Darned if I see why" was the come back of the boy, and the modest little lady replied "You should say may I kiss you?" and the question was settled and proven correct.

Old King Tut evened up with Lord Carnarvon for opening his tomb, by having one of his pert 3000 year old bugs bite him, and he died.

"What is the matter now?" asked her mother. "Matter enough, I should say. Now that we poor girls are making enough money in the munition-factories to buy a lot of clothes we have to wear overalls."

When aid is asked for Russia's starving children, it should be remembered that they are selling grain to other countries and killing people for teaching religion to any under 18 years of age.

J. Conan Doyle has just come back from England with a whole bag of new "spooks" to convince Americans that they do exist. A drink of bootlegger hootch will make any free born American see spooks as well as other things.

Col. Charley Stobie tells this of a court in the early days on the frontier where he was serving as a government scout. The prosecuting attorney had been searching about for some time before the court was called, and finally said: "Yer honor, the sheriff's bull pup has done eat up the court Bible," and the ever ready court answered: "Well, then, make the witness kiss the bull pup, we can't adjourn court just to go huntin' a Bible in this here town.

They were on an interurban car bound for the big city. One of them, the son of a banker, had been intrusted with a bundle containing $5,000 in bills. The bundle was wrapped in a newspaper. Being young, the bearers of the treasure fell to talking of girls and things, and when they arrived at the station both got up and started away without the bundle. "Hey, you fellows," a man who had been sitting back of them shouted. "Hey boys, you've forgot your laundry." It need not be guessed that the boys double quicked back for the laundry."

He looked a sorry sight as he limped into the insurance office. Bandages were numerous, and he walked with the aid of a crutch. "I have called to make on application for the amount due on my accident policy," he said. "I fell down a long flight of stairs the other evening, and sustained damages that will disable me for some time to come." The manager gave him a firm look. "Young man," he replied, "I have investigated your case, and find that you are not entitled to anything. It could not be called an accident, for you certainly knew that the young lady's father was at home."

State Police Bill a Necessity

The State Police bill is now before the senate and we urge upon our readers that they write Senator Ryan urging its passage. It is endorsed by all the Chambers of Commerce, the Motor clubs, Traffic clubs, Illinois Bankers association, fifty farmer bureaus, building contractors, American Legion and all of the principal business men's and Commercial associations.

The bill, in brief, will make the country roads and small towns as safe as the city streets and put them under good police protection.

Each troop is assigned to cover a certain portion of the state and is divided into small units working out of sub-stations, which are not permanent but are changed from time to time to meet existing local conditions. The troop headquarters are located in permanent barracks not near any large city. The superintendent's office is located at the capitol.

Overloaded trucks, driven rapidly, soon break down our hard roads and cause great loss to the state each year. In New York, Pennsylvania and Michigan, their state policemen are using a device called the loadometer which can be carried in a motorcycle, to weigh trucks on the highway; this check has almost stopped the practice. Illinois has a law limiting truck weights, but no means of enforcing it.

State police also stop reckless driving and speeding, arrest drunken drivers, teach "road hogs" motor manners, recover stolen cars, and make the highways safe for motorists to travel day or night.

Federal Lodge, A. F. & A. M., 10th Anniversary

Federal lodge, A. F. & A. M., celebrated their tenth anniversary Saturday evening at the Englewood temple. The dance hall and card rooms were filled to capacity and the members and their friends spent a very pleasant evening. Frappe was served during the evening, which was followed by a buffet lunch. Walter R. Arthur of 7003 Sangamon st. is master of the lodge and Ira B. Bartley, 7022 Normal blvd., senior warden.

Solas Bulka has this to say about last Monday's Bargain day on 63rd st: "We did fine. Sold extensively of the "Cartitas" cigars, and I wish to thank our many patrons for their generous patronages. Repeat my ad and next Monday we'll have plenty of the Cartitas brand.

Kiwanis Club Goes to Church

Not only did the Englewood Kiwanis club go to the Pilgrim Congregational church last Tuesday, but they liked it, and will continue to go there for their noonday luncheons until further orders.

The attendance was four short of perfect, one member being ill enough to be in bed, and the others out of the city, so that our attendance will still be in fair shape if the entire membership attends the rest of the meetings during the contest. Some hearty community singing awoke the echoes, especially Doc Norton's "Peggy O'Neill."

The ladies of the church served a very nice luncheon which was greatly appreciated, especially the lemon cream pie, that Will Cunningham foundered himself on. Ray Ballantino with his DeReska voice lead in some more singing, and it was almost as sweet as the collection of fines. Some unregenerate cuss stole the bank of Sergt. d'Arms Wendell Williams, and Wendell was fined for his careless guardianship. "Bill" McDonnell won the nickel plated ear muffs by giving the poetical occupation of all the members at the table. Charley Steele will have the honor of providing the award for next week and J. E. Monahan, the unreconstructed Philipino, won the attendance award. The O'Leary orchestra again favored us with delightful music and it was a treat. President Rathje announced that the club would meet until further notice at Pilgrim church and it met with favor of all the members. The speaker introduced the guest of the day, Mr. Alexander Karr, founder of the American Community association, who delivered a wonderfully eloquent and forceful talk on "Personality." Mr. Karr by his strength of oratory, his gift of eloquence and very appropriate quotations, made his entire address sound like a poem. New ideas were created of "Personality," and a better appreciation of its meaning was instilled into the minds of his hearers.

Intelligent Compositor Still After Hocking & Penhallegon

Only three weeks ago that profanity producing outlaw, the intelligent compositor, had this excellent firm selling "Evader" paint instead of the high grade screen covering "Invader" and last week, he gently moved the big store, Bob Hocking, his radio and all to Harvard ave., while the firm has been paying taxes on the location at Normal blvd. Truth is, he switched the addresses of Harry Carr and Penhallegon's, but the error was discovered in Carr's case. To make up for such who were mislead, Irv has put in a bunch of bargains for the coming Monday, that will draw a wise customer from Blue Island. Just read them.

Business Men See the Housing Needs of Englewood

For years we have been using much space and good printer's ink urging as the greatest need of our community, places for our people to live. This spring the matter has come to a climax and we have hundreds of families who want to live in Englewood and cannot find homes. Our many advantages of churches, schools, transportation and social, as well as great commercial advantages, appeals to a better class of people, who by inquiry and personal calls have been applying to us for a place to live. One of the important needs is a family hotel with a hundred apartments for families without children, also small apartments for those of small families, and greater than all, larger apartments and flats for families of the good old Englewood kind, not necessarily steam heated, but comfortable and roomy. Architects and builders contend that all of such buildings are a good paying investment, and are a tangible security for money, much better than a prettily printed certificate of stock in a foreign company. We need buildings to house our people, and to house thousands more who would come to Englewood if they could get the flats or houses.

Wage Increase May 1st

The street car men have served notice that they must be restored their former wage of eighty cents per hour, and of course the Elevated employes will demand the same. With the companies charging a seven and ten cent fare, they are amply able to pay it, and the public should not be subjected to the annoyance and inconvenience of a strike. The building trades have been urging a rate of $1.25 instead of $1.15 an hour and they should be granted it, as many contractors have been paying higher wages for brick layers and carpenters during the past year, and it would be as well to place them all on the same basis. It is useless to say the builders cannot afford this amount, as they now have more contracts on their books than they can get men to perform the work, and this is the biggest building year our wonderful city has ever known. It is folly to say that it does not pay to build, with the present high rents every owner is making money and receiving good returns on his investment. Commercially the world benefits by the higher wage, as there is more money to be spent and the merchants and everyone profits by it. There is but a week to settle all of this in, and we hope there will be no hindrance of our present prosperous prospects. Get together now, gentlemen, and don't stop the work.
